Terms & Conditions

Payments are to be made on arrival, all cheques to be made payable to J Hughes.

Please declare if your pet has any signs of illness or is pregnant. We reserve the right to refuse any very sick pets unless we have agreed to take them prior to arrival. We expect bunnies to be vaccinated against fatal diseases such as Myxomatosis so we cannot be held responsible if your pet develops such an illness whilst in our care. We will not be held responsible for illnesses/infections provided that we have cared for your pet to the best of our ability.

Owners must be aware that boarding can be a stressful period for some small animals. We will take every care to ensure that your pet's stay is as stress free as possible. However, very occasionally signs of illness can occur in usually healthy small animals as a result of boarding. We cannot be held responsible in the event of illness.

We are happy to house bonded animals of the same species together. However, animals are housed together at your own risk. We will not be held responsible for any fights between bonded animals housed together.

If your pet does show sign of illness whilst in our care and we are concerned for their welfare, we will seek the advice of our local vet. By leaving your pet in our care you are agreeing to pay any vet fees incurred by your pet on collection.

Sadly small animals can become ill and pass away with very little warning. We promise to take great care of your pet and will accept no liability in the unlikely event that your pet passes away whilst in our care.

Please ensure that you deliver and collect your pet between the hours of 11.00am and 2.00pm. If you arrive outside of these times we may not be available. If it is not possible to drop off or collect within this time frame please contact us and we will arrange a specific time for suitable for you.

We would be grateful if you would contact us as soon as possible should you need to cancel or change your booking.

We are situated in a cul-de-sac, please be considerate when parking, please feel free to come straight onto our drive if possible.

Critter Creche has NO public liability insurance and cannot be held responsible for loss or injury to pets left.

We reserve the right to eventually rehome your pet if it is not collected and no contact is made 1 week after the agreed collection date.

By signing this Registration Form you are agreeing to the terms and conditions set out therein.
